Dear Sir,

Enclosed is a copy of a letter which I addressed to the Dewan on the 19th July 1921, or nearly eight months ago. I have heard nothing about it till now, probably because being a member of the Personal staff of His Highness the Maharaja, I was wrong in addressing it to the Dewan. I therefore now address it to you and request you to submit it to His Highness for His gracious orders.

Yours sincerely,

Sd/- T.V. Arumugam Mudaliar

Bangalore,
19th July 1921.

My dear Sir,

Just before my retirement, His Highness was graciously pleased to allow me two alternatives. One was that I should be retired and re-employed as part time Durbar Surgeon, with an honorarium of Rs500/- (subsequently raised to Rs600/-) in addition to my pension of Rs500/- per mensem. The other was that I should be relieved of my duties as Senior Surgeon but continued as full time Durbar Surgeon on a pay of Rs1,400/- per mensem, making Mysore my Head Quarter and being required to be in attendance on Their Highnesses as a member of their suite whenever they tour and without the privileges of free quarters or free conveyance. In other words I was to get a remuneration of Rs900/- for the Durbar Surgeon's duties, Rs500/- being deducted as the equivalent of my pension. In spite of the great difference in emoluments between the two alternatives, I had to choose the first one.

It is now a year since the arrangement has been in force and I feel I could, if permitted, fall back on the second alternative I am prepared to move about, being in attendance on Their Highnesses as a member of their suite. I may, however, be kindly permitted to make Bangalore my Head Quarter and to visit Mysore once a month or oftener according to necessity. I may also be kindly allowed the pritilege of a free conveyance while at Mysore, which had been granted to me before my retirement had even been thought of.

Under these circumstances I request that my case may kindly be reconsidered and my emoluments be raised to what had been proposed in the second of the two alternatives.

I remain,
My dear Sir,
Yours sincerely,

D Venugopal
